NEW NORWICH ASSOCIATION FOR ATHLETIC SPORTS. Bowen and Desmond Have Project to Replace City Baseball League.

After the City league had voted to disband at its meeting on Tuesday evening, Manager Joe Desmond and Manager Bill Bowen, who have been in charge of the Centrals and the Falis ns, said they would have been sat-d to continue the league, but were ing to vote to disband as long as he other two managers did not wish stay in. Desmond and Bowen said it was now heir intention to organize an athletic association which should be composed of three teams and play a schedule at Sachem park as the City leaguers had expected to do. Only one game would be played each week and one team would lay off while the other two were playing. It was their intention to pre-sent the fastest lineups possible, using the semi-professionals in this terri-tory and not confining themselves strictly to players of the town of Nor-wich, as the City league had done.
